

Countryside is relocating to the Tri-Faith Campus

Help fulfill a mission of hope

We are an inclusive, open and affirming family of faith, welcoming all to God's table of love and acceptance. We are diverse, yet united by Christ's example. We care for one another, support one another and challenge one another to become all that God creates us to be. We work together to nurture our community and promote peace and justice in our conflicted world.

The Tri-Faith Initiative

Why these three faiths?

Judaism, Christianity, and Islam share beliefs in a common God. Our traditions have many names for God and use several languages for our sacred texts, but we share a belief in the God of Abraham.

The Tri-Faith vision in Omaha

Our vision is to build bridges of respect, acceptance, and trust. We strive to challenge stereotypes, to learn from each other, and to counter the influence of fear and misunderstanding. Our new campus is located at 132nd and Pacific Streets in Omaha, Nebraska. Find out more at trifaith.org.

Our Tri-Faith Partners

Temple Israel

Temple Israel is a Reform Jewish congregation that strives to bridge tradition and modernity, linking a cherished Jewish history with fresh approaches to spirituality, lifelong Jewish learning and acts of justice. Learn more at templeisraelomaha.com.

American Muslim Institute

The American Muslim Institute's (AMI) mission is to promote a better understanding of Islam in the Western world. The AMI's educational, religious and social programs are grounded in faith and the core values of Islam: acceptance, compassion, equality, justice and peace. Find out more at americanmusliminstitute.org.

You can help bring the Christian presence to Omaha's new Tri-Faith Initiative.

COUNTRYSIDE
RELOCATION

Your support can build a faith foundation for the future.

Have an impact

Countryside Community Church is committed to ministries that embody our belief that we – and all people – are deeply and truly loved. Your support now can help bring that message to the entire community as a key part of Omaha's new Tri-Faith Campus.

Live your faith

Your support of Countryside's presence on the Tri-Faith Campus will help deepen the dialogue among and between other faith traditions. By living our faith with others, we can learn to live it more deeply ourselves.

Set an example

Christian involvement in the Tri-Faith Initiative can be an example to others that people of different faiths can not only coexist, but actually thrive in a rich environment of discussion and education.

Invest in the future

The new Countryside Community Church facilities will be environmentally friendly and rich in technology to serve as a resource for the Omaha community for generations to come.

Pledge your gift

Join your family, friends and neighbors in making a commitment to a richer future of faith for every member of the Omaha community. Visit countrysideucc.org to make your gift today.

Contribute today at countrysideucc.org

About Countryside Community Church

Countryside is affiliated with the United Church of Christ. We were established in 1949 as part of the Congregational Church, one of the oldest denominations in America. The UCC is distinct and diverse community of Christians that come together as one church, but leave decision-making to each congregation.

“You are loved beyond your wildest imagination!”

*-Rev. Eric Elnes, Ph.D.
Senior Minister*

