

United We Walk Frequently Asked Questions

What is United We Walk?

United We Walk is a walk for an inclusive Omaha. UWW will be celebratory and joyful, bringing together members representing Omaha's varied, intersectional communities: racial, cultural, religious, age, sex, gender, orientation, and persons with disabilities.

What is the cost?

This is a FREE community event, but we are requesting that everyone register using this link: free registration. Registering in advance helps us plan accordingly for security, parking, food trucks, etc. Donations are welcome and help support Tri-Faith's mission of cultivating inclusive environments to advance interfaith relationships and understanding.

What is the Tri-Faith Initiative?

As an interfaith education non-profit, we address the need of the time through educational and relational programs, advocacy actions, and thought leadership. Our mission is to cultivate inclusive environments to advance interfaith relationships and understanding as we envision a world where differences are honored, similarities are built upon, and everyone belongs.

How can I donate to the Tri-Faith Initiative?

United We Walk is our annual fundraiser! Please support our mission of cultivating inclusive environments to advance interfaith relationships and understanding, please donate here: <https://www.trifaith.org/donate/>

What happens if it rains?

UWW will occur rain or shine. Should inclement weather occur, announcements will be made to further assess the situation. Event staff and volunteers will communicate any updates on our social media pages.

Can I bring guests?

Yes! Please invite your family, friends, neighbors, school connections, and fellow congregants to attend. Please have everyone register using these links:

What should I wear?

We are encouraging all walkers to bring flags/banners, wear t-shirts/hats for whatever organizations, identity, or cause they are representing. Our hope is to reflect all the diversity represented in our community. It's not mandatory, but we want this to be a celebratory event, showcasing that unity is possible across differences!

Can I volunteer?

Yes! Please sign up at: <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/10c0d4da4a622a2f9c25-united1#/>

When should I plan to arrive?

The event starts at 3:00 PM. We recommend arriving no later than 2:30 PM to allow you to park and walk, or take a free shuttle to arrive at the Tri-Faith Commons by 3:00 PM. As parking may be limited, we recommend carpooling with your family, friends, neighbors, school connections, or fellow congregants.

How do I access the Tri-Faith Commons?

From 132nd Street, turn east onto Legion Street. From Pacific Street, turn south onto Sterling Ridge Drive.

Where do I park?

You will be able to park in 3 different lots: Temple Israel, Centris Federal Credit Union, LinkedIn. Free shuttles provided by Heritage Communities will drive you to the Tri-Faith Center if you prefer not to walk to the starting point. As parking may be limited, we recommend carpooling with your family, friends, neighbors, school connections, and fellow congregants.

ADA parking will be available at Centris Federal Credit Union (thank you Centris!). Please see the parking map for specific locations. If you have mobility issues, please email walk@trifaith.org for any inquiries.

What do I do when I arrive?

If you've pre-registered, there is no check-in needed. If you've pre-registered for $25 and a t-shirt, please head to the Information table in the far east corner of the AMI parking lot. If you are part of a large group, please feel free to use our Marshaling Area in the AMI parking lot to find each other. You can begin to mingle, scope out the site, find your place in front of the stage, or talk to someone new. You are able to begin ordering food and drinks from the food trucks and explore our partners' booths in the Community Fair. If you haven't registered, please do so before September 10th using this link: Free Registration.

Where do I meet my group?

Feel free to marshal your group in the parking lot between AMI and Tri-Faith. There will be signs breaking up the alphabet, allowing your organization to meet up together.
